

This is what we like to see.....

Success!

2005

G'day Jeff,

Tell you what mate! that was the longest most unbearable 6 months we ever had to endure, but I'm booking a flight for her subject to availability for the 6th August. So all things considered we're delighted. She has to go to the CFO office in Pasay city with her passport with visa to get a certificate of clearance and that's it mate!.

I've got to really extend my deepest gratitude for all your advice and help over the past year, very relevant, needed and important. THANK YOU!!!

Have I told you we're expecting a son due on October 4th who we've named Adrian.

Hope you and your wife are in excellent health and your business is growing.

Cheers Mate!!

Lawrence and Jessica

....then more success!

2007

From the  clan, Lawrence, Jessica and our lil, irrepressible son Adrian wishing you and family an excellent Christmas and productive new year. We went to Manila in September for 2 weeks to celebrate Adrian's 2nd birthday and to catch up with Jess's family and to give Adrian a good dose of gastro..well that wasn't planned anyhow! Saw Tagaytay and Mt Taal..beautiful area, fresh-clean air, ..only downer was returning to Manila.

Thanks again for everything mate.

Many Cheers!

From Jessica, Lawrence and Adrian
