Feedback from past Down Under Visa clients

G'day Jeff,

Tell you what mate! that was the longest most unbearable 6 months we ever had to endure, but I'm booking a flight for her subject to availability for the 6th August. So all things considered we're delighted. She has to go to the CFO office in Pasay city with her passport with visa to get a certificate of clearance and that's it mate!

I've got to really extend my deepest gratitude for all your advice and help over the past year, very relevant, needed and important. THANK YOU!!!

Have I told you we're expecting a son due on October 4th who we've named Adrian.

Hope you and your wife are in excellent health and your business is growing.

Cheers Mate!!

From the  clan, Lawrence, Jessica and our lil, irrepressible son Adrian wishing you and family an excellent Christmas and productive new year. We went to Manila in September for 2 weeks to celebrate Adrian's 2nd birthday and to catch up with Jess's family and to give Adrian a good dose of gastro..well that wasn't planned anyhow! Saw Tagaytay and Mt Taal..beautiful area, fresh-clean air, ..only downer was returning to Manila.

Thanks again for everything mate.

Many Cheers!

From Jessica, Lawrence and Adrian

Dear Jeff and Mila,

Lani and I wanted to wish you and your family a wonderful Christmas for 2008. Sorry we didn't get back to you sooner but with all the excitement of her arriving and setting up a household together its hard to find the time. We never forgot your kindness though, and don't know how we would have done it without you. We probably wouldn't have. Hope we can cross paths one day because I thnk I owe you a beer at least.

Best wishes from Bruce and Lani

G'day Jeff,

What can i say? We made it. My honey ko is here and noting went wrong just like you said. Without Jeff and downundervisa maybe were still wondering what to do. you and your team have been great right from the start with such clear and easy to understand advise with no talking down to us. If we got worried we knew we just had to send an email and back comes the answer like magic. and i know that Cindi is having an easier time of it all than she would have if i hadnt been prepared wiath what i neededto have in place for when she got to her new home. The rice cooker is going all the time and she has some nice filipino lady friends to talk to. But we just want to say how much we appreciate everything yu and your wife mila did for Cindi and me and we would always tell people to just use downundervisa for peace of mind.

Thanks steve

Jeff,

Even though Jennalyn is still waiting for her visa, I just wanted to say a huge THANK YOU to you and Down Under Visa for the support you've given us over what would have been a scary process for us both. You saved us from doing a few stupid things as you already know, so I know already what a tremendous value this wonderful service has been to us. I will certainly have no hesitation to recommend you and your team for the most remarkable "beyond the call of duty" job you have done for us. Mila has been like a supportive "Auntie" to Jennalyn, and if you didn't have "Auntie Eva" there in Manila to meet her and take her to the Embassy for her interview I would have had to go there myself. I'm sure I wouldn't have been as much help!

Anyway, even though we still wait in anxious anticipation we know that we remain in safe hands because of all the detail you put into this. We are anxious, but we're not worried if that makes any sense.

Yours with gratitude,

Arthur *****

Jeff, mate! Just a quick one to let you know that I'm now the proud dad of a healthy baby boy! Mum and bub are doing great, and sleeping peacefully while I type this. Marnie said to make sure we email you and Mila straight away.

We're grateful that the boy is doing well and the birth was trouble-free and he was born here and not in Manila! Thanks to you for making us a priority.

Hey take care mate! Bob

Dear Dawn Under Visa,

I just want to say thank you very much for all the help that you've given to us. Your staff was excellent especially Eva and Ihana. They're a big help to me especially during my interview. Eva helps me a lot. Eva, Ihana and I are now friends we always chat if we have time.

And I thank you also for the book that you gave to us Mr. Harvie. It helps me a lot especially about the cultural difference. Without your help maybe I'm still here in the Philippines awaiting for my visa approval and God answers all my prayers.

Now I'm happy living with my husband and we have two kids.

God bless and more power to all of you!!!

Gina
